

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Such forcing of affiliates to show the anti-Kerry documentary only days before the election reveals its failure to be part of a free press. Thank you.